PHOENIX GRILL & EVENT CENTER

2095 10th Ave. - Baldwin, WI

WETC 16-HOUR ELECTRICAL EXAM PREP CLASS APRIL 24-25, 2025

This two-day event will be held on Thursday & Friday, April 24-25th, 2025 at the location above. Class will begin each day at 8:00 AM and conclude each day at 5:00 PM. A noon lunch as well as morning and afternoon breaks are included. The only reference material you will need to bring is a copy of the 2017 NEC. The most recent copy of SPS 316 (Wisconsin Code) will be furnished.

Seating is limited and these classes fill up fast! Complete and return the registration form on the back of this flyer ASAP. This flyer and a fillable pdf of the registration form are also available at www.wielectrictrades.com.

If you plan to stay overnight there are two motels a short distance from the Phoenix Event Center. You may call the AmericInn at (715) 760-9086 or the Baymont at (715) 502-3416 to check on availability or to make reservations. However, there are no special room rates associated with this event. Reservations may also be made by visiting various on-line booking sites like Orbitz, Priceline, Trivago, Expedia, or similar sites.

Taking one of the Wisconsin Electrician's Credential Exams can be a daunting experience. While no instruction course can provide the answers for the exam, this two-day intense training course will equip you with the techniques needed for finding the answers for the exam using only the Wisconsin State Electrical Code SPS 316 & 2017 NEC. You will work with practice questions, calculations, and tests to hone your skills at using the code to find the answers. There will also be pointers on areas to study that will jump-start your study sessions leading up to the test.

- Calculations
- Raceways
- Generators
- Cabinets
- What to expect on the exam
- Motors
- Cables
- Conductors
- Service Equipment
- Tips for passing the exam

Who Will Benefit: Anyone serious about passing the Master or Journeyman's Electrical Exam who desires an intense review and study session to refresh your knowledge of the electrical code, calculations, and theory to boost your confidence in writing the exam. Anyone who has the desire to improve their understanding and ability to work with the NEC and SPS 316. Anyone in need of 16 hours of CEU credit toward renewal of Wisconsin Electrician or Inspector's credentials.*

Terms and Conditions

The Wisconsin Electrical Trades Council, Inc. (WETC), its Board of Directors, and its instructors or presenters, make no guarantee or assurance that attendance at, or participation in, a WETC sponsored class or event will result in a passing grade when writing any State, Municipal, or local exam given for the purpose of licensing electricians. WETC classes and presentations are intended only to educate the attendees in a method of researching and utilizing the version of the National Electric Code (NFPA 70) currently adopted by the State of Wisconsin as well as the most recent version of SPS 316, the Wisconsin Electrical Code, to find the correct answers for questions presented on licensing exams. It is the responsibility of the registrant and attendee of WETC sponsored classes to participate in the class and to use the knowledge and skills presented to the best of their abilities. The WETC or the instructors for the classes or events shall not be held liable for exam outcome or result beyond the scope and duration of the class or presentation.

Class Requirements: The WETC reserves the right to limit the maximum number of registrations for any class or event. The WETC also reserves the right to set a minimum number of registrations necessary to conduct the class. Every effort will be made to conduct the class as promoted, however, the WETC will not be liable for changes of time, date, or location that are beyond the control of the WETC other than those stipulations set forth below.

Class Cancellation: The WETC reserves the right to cancel this class for any reason without prior notice. Every effort will be made to notify participants as soon as possible of a cancellation. If payments have been processed at the time of cancellation all funds will be returned to the registrants. However, the WETC will not be liable for travel expenses or motel cancellation penalties incurred by the registrants.

Refund Policy: All registrations will be held until 48 hours prior to the start of the class before processing payments. Checks will not be cashed, and credit cards will not be charged if notification of intent to withdraw from the class is received by 8:00 AM two calendar days prior to the date of the class. If notification of intent to withdraw is received less than 48 hours prior to the start of the class the WETC may consider, at their discretion, to: A) Transfer the registration to a future Electrical Exam Prep Class within 12 months of the date of the original class, or B) Refund up to 65% of class fees upon submittal of a completed and signed Refund Request Form. No-shows, late arrivals, and walk-outs once the class has begun will not be eligible for refunds except in the case of Extenuating Circumstances as defined below.

Extenuating Circumstances: Should the inability to attend the class arise due to hospitalization or death of an immediate family member, severe sickness, auto accident or other emergent circumstance, the WETC may consider, at their discretion, a full refund of registration fees upon submittal of a completed and signed Refund Request Form.

Refund Request Form: A Refund Request Form will be sent any registrant who notifies our office of the intent to cancel less than 48 hours prior to the start of the class or in the case of Extenuating Circumstances as defined above. The WETC reserves the right to request additional documentation to make an informed decision regarding any requests for refund.

Signature: A valid signature is required on all registration forms to verify payment method as well as acknowledgement and acceptance of the terms and conditions set forth on this flyer and registration form.

I hereby acknowledge the Registration and Payment Information provided as well as the Terms and Conditions detailed above.
